

I support Joseph Speroni's petition, that applicants should not have to be required to take a Code test if it is not desired. I don't believe CW will be "lost". I find it very interesting myself, but do not feel that I should be required to learn CW to upgrade my license. Although I do want to learn CW, I think it should not be required for "Phone modes".